

SPORTSMAN'S SHOW OPENS

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION IN THE GARDEN.

Guides Entertain in the Camps—Model Yachts Prove a Good Attraction—Rifle Shooting by Schoolboys—Basketball Begins—Two Games Are Played.

The sixteenth annual Sportsman's Show was opened in the Madison Square Garden yesterday afternoon, and by way of extra attractions there were two games of basketball and some rifle shooting by schoolboys. The schoolboy rifle shooting, which is under the auspices of the Public Schools Athletic League, is a good thing, and the boys are keen about it. They gathered in the basement and roof hard for their representatives or teams, and there is an immense amount of enthusiasm. They are shooting for championships, individual and team, and the competitors will last until the show closes.

The basketball games did not seem to raise much enthusiasm yesterday. The first game was between the Garden and the City, and the second between the Garden and the City. The Garden won both games.

There was a fair attendance yesterday afternoon and evening and the promoters of the show are confident that the year and a half class pitcher can be developed. The Garden made a good showing. Capt. Dawson is practically a fixture in the receiver's position, but he has a strong substitute in Warner, who is fast and brainy but lacks experience.

White and Cunningham, who did the major part of the pitching last year, will again be on the firing line, but both will have to show better form than heretofore. The Garden's lineup is as follows: Pitcher, White; catcher, Cunningham; first base, P. P. Conroy; second base, J. H. White; third base, J. H. White; left field, J. H. White; center field, J. H. White; right field, J. H. White.

The guides who are there will get busy during the week and regard the guides as the backbone of the show. They are the ones who really love outdoor life, hunting, shooting, fishing, canoeing and other of the attractive features of life in the woods. The guides are of various sorts of things are offered for sale. Some of these are of interest to the sportsmen and many are not.

The big railroads are represented by a fine lot of pictures that make one long for the open air. In the concert hall illustrated pictures of outdoor life are delivered every evening.

PRINCETON BASEBALL.

Six Regulars From Last Year's Team Are Eligible.

PRINCETON, March 2.—Six regulars from last year's Princeton baseball team and one substitute are again eligible this year and if a first class pitcher can be developed the Tigers should make a good showing. CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

CURLEY BROWN HAS JACKSONVILLE IN LIMELIGHT.

High Handed Methods Are Prevalent. According to J. E. T. Howden, a Former Mayor of the Florida City—Arrest of a Woman Causes Trouble for Promoter.

There have been so many odd incidents at Curley Brown's Jacksonville racetrack this winter that the horses are ready to hear almost anything. The latest mix-up—the declaring of all bets after Brown had started one of the races on Tuesday before a certain horse had reached the barrier—was regarded by turfmen who discussed it yesterday as a case of high handed methods.

There were only one remedy—the return of wagers on the horse by the racing association. Joseph A. Murphy, president judge at Jacksonville, who will preside at the trial of the race, declared that Brown's order to declare of all bets, which makes him equally to blame. That there was something behind this strange procedure might be inferred from the fact that Bookmaker Tom Shaw said that he had been told by Brown that he was going to be arrested.

From many reliable persons comes the same story that Brown has been running things with a high hand since he took over the track. Numerous jockeys have been fined and suspended by Brown because of alleged disorder at the post when, as a matter of fact, racegoers say the handling of the horses was perfect. Brown's owners and trainers have been barred from the track for expressing opinions as to the methods in vogue, and only a few days ago a woman, Mrs. Laura Gilmore, the wife of Robert Gilmore, owner of the horse Patriot, was forced to spend a night in jail charged with libel by Brown and his associates.

Gilmore, a former jockey who is coached for by Capt. Rees, a well known racing official in the West, later, however, was released. The woman was arrested by Brown's men, who were charged with libel by Brown and his associates. The woman was arrested by Brown's men, who were charged with libel by Brown and his associates.

The Orange and Black will have two advantages in the coming season. First, they will have Capt. Dawson at the helm, a man who is not only a reliable pitcher but also a good manager. Second, they will have a strong lineup of players, including White, Cunningham, Conroy, White, White, White, and White.

GIANTS IN REAL PRACTICE.

Seymour Hits a Ball So Hard That He Loses a Tooth.

MAELIN, Tex., March 2.—With Cy Seymour hitting a ball so hard that he knocked out one of his own teeth, and the other veterans jumping into practice under a hot sun and showing a lot of pepper the first day, the spring training of the Giants may be said to be in full blast.

Manager McInerch had so many players on the field today that there was not room for them on the bench or in the games. He kept some of them running around the field for exercise. This is a feature of the training which Bugs Raymond particularly enjoys, and that's why McGraw makes him do more of it than any of the other players.

Seymour's loss of a piece of his dental frontpiece was amusing. He hit a ball in the morning practice game, and as he was rounding second base he opened his mouth to yell and out tumbled a crown. Cy halted the game and time was called while he hunted for the tooth. The Giants all think that Seymour did not lose it after all, but a true experience concerning a hard hit ball.

The veteran pitchers lined up with the youngsters and soaked the ball into the mitts of four catchers, but none of them felt like doing much except "franklin," who had plenty of smoke. He says that he has acquired a true wrist movement from shaking a corn out of his old Indiana home-stead.

Jack Weiner, whose arm was useless last season, said today that he had entirely recovered. Last year he made the mistake of starting too early and he will be more deliberate this spring.

There was a short practice game to wind up the morning practice and aside from the hitting, the right fielder, who was up only twice, hit the ball over the left field fence with a line drive which landed in the bleachers.

The regulars and Vaniganes lined up for the first game of the afternoon. It was a real ball game for three innings and the boys were all in the game. The Giants scored a 3 to 2 victory. A majority of the game after the third inning, and the substitutes gathered the runs.

McInerch, who was in the game, pitched the first three innings for the Vaniganes. He allowed one hit and shut out the old boys. Seymour, who was in the game, pitched the last three innings. He allowed one hit and shut out the old boys.

Three teams will perform next Sunday, games having been scheduled at Dallas, Fort Worth and Waco.

COMMITTEE AT WORK ON THE 1910 LIST.

New Table Issued as a Guide to Club Secretaries—Par Score as Suggested at Annual Meeting Will Be Used—Best Ball Foreplay on Palm Beach Links.

J. E. Erickson of the Plainfield Country Club and his associates of the Metropolitan Golf Association handicap committee are now at work on the 1910 list as the executive committee has accepted the revised par score suggested at the annual meeting. The spring list, however, may not be out as early as usual. This notice has been sent out.

Owing to a revision of the handicap table it has been necessary to have new blanks printed. They will be ready for distribution in a few days. In the meantime please make up at once a list of your playing partners and after each game indicate the player's best score average, i. e., his score on his home course when he is playing his average best game. In deciding what this is you must go by his score last season in competition and by what you know his best form to be.

The revised table is as follows: 1 to 215 yards, par 3; 216 to 230 yards, par 3 1/2; 231 to 245 yards, par 4; 246 to 260 yards, par 4 1/2; 261 to 275 yards, par 5; 276 to 290 yards, par 5 1/2; 291 to 305 yards, par 6;
